

All-Hack Team

ISU RecSports Softball

Softball All-Hack Team:

There are twelve (12) overall selections, highlighting the top two performers from each championship qualifying team.

All-Hack Team: As voted on by the RecSports Staff.

RecSports Softball All-Hack Team

Name	Position	Team Name	Hometown	Year in School
Nick "Abers" Abernathy	SS	Raw Dawgs	Ottawa	Jr.
Raw Dawgs clean-up hitter, Abers hit the go-ahead 3-run homerun in the Men's Championship. His nickname might be changing to "David Oreck" because he sucked up every ball hit his way at shortstop.
Brian "Beans" Cardamone	C	Raw Dawgs	Mount Prospect	Jr.
The heart and soul of the Raw Dawgs, Beans was a new addition the lineup this year. He came through with some outstanding plays behind the dish worthy of a Web Gem Nominee.
Ian Sanchez	SS	The Bleezy's	Mundelein	Jr.
With a swing almost similar to Griffey, Ian Sanchez was able to get on base when his team needed it most. This Junior will be looking to redeem the loss in the 2010 season.
Joe Kelly	2nd	The Bleezy's	Oak Park	Jr.
A defensive specialist, Joe Kelly was famous for the 4-3 double play. Oak Park has a long list of notable natives, I suggest they add another...and his name is Joe.
Michelle "MC" Christ	OF	Delta Sig Green	Grant Park	Jr.
A Rec Building Legend, Michelle brings her fame to Gregory Street Fields. Batting 2nd in Green's lineup, "MC" got it every game.
Ryan Davis	SP	Delta Sig Green		Jr.
Ryan Howard Davis was Green's big bat, hitting in the three spot. It was a rarity if this starting pitcher missed the mat.
Kris "Tatts" Vandenberg	SP	Defending Champs	Danville	Sr.
This RecSports softball legend didn't allow a walk all season...someone call up Cooperstown. Tatts' Special: Slurve, Changeup, and $4 pitchers (we're talking Pepsi people) since he is a bartender at The Pub II.
Ashley Trezzo	CF	Defending Champs	Downers Grove	So.
I wish we kept stats, because Trezzo would be batting well over .500. This education major is known as the "best hitting girl in the league". Don't check the DL, she missed the Championship Game due to a Britney Spears concert.
Gabe Soto	LF	Pike Nation	Weeling	Sr.
Ted Williams would be proud of this fellow left fielder. No matter where the pitch was thrown, Gabe was all over it. The Nation will need to reload next season.
Kyle Zapalik	SS	Pike Nation	Orland Park	Sr.
Just like Ian Kinsler, a famous MLB'er who is a ПКА, Kyle led the team on both sides of the ball. Zapalik left his mark on the RecSports yearbook one last time before graduation.
Garret Runyon	SS/2B	Sig Ep: Bone Cheeze	Rantoul	Sr.
Runyon helped out Bone Cheeze with numerous mindboggling plays up the middle. Known as Mr. DP, this soon-to-be-graduate turned one of the quickest double plays on the fields of Gregory in recent memory.
Jason Grueter	SS/CF	Sig Ep: Bone Cheeze	Algonquin	Jr.
The strongest returning member from last years' squad, Grueter was a "no doubt about'er" when coming up to the plate. Don't even think about seeing his moves out in CF on the duece...the catches he made in center were as ESPN as Scott Van Pelt.				