ISU RecSports

Top 5 Men's Independent flag football poll with record in parentheses, total points and previous ranking:

RecSports JWJH Power Poll

Rank	Team	Record	#1 Votes	Power Poll Points	PVS Rank
1	Monstars	(12-0)	34	1,374	1
The first-ever All University Champion, Monstars set the RecSports record for most wins in a season. Junior Quarterback Ian Sanchez will beat you with his feet or his arm. With a strong off-season, Monstars will be back to defend their title.
2	Warriors	(10-1)	18	1,211	4
Warriors fell short in the Men's Independent Championship. Junior Adam Strauch runs the spread just like Mike Leach...all gun and no run. Warriors should return a majority of their starters and will be out looking for revenge next season.
3	Brown Cow	(9-1)	12	1,207	3
Brown Cow Seniors Bryan Otte and Chris Hinck couldn't get over the hump in the semifinals. With a good pledge draft class, Brown Cow should be a contender in any division come next year.
4	Dirty Birds	(9-1)	-	1,194	5
This team still has something to dance about after a terrific season. The only bad news is that Seniors Andrew Ondik and Garin Harcar had to retire without a ring.
5	Domination Nation	(7-2)	-	942	N/A
The Domination Nation was solid throughout the playoffs but couldn't make it to the Final Four. Freshmen Alex Sabo and Phil Hurst won't hit the sophomore slump next year.
